Law Library News

The e-Museletter is a regular email newsletter from the Law Library. You can also get up-to-the-minute news and events information on our blog: MuseNews!

New to the University of Richmond School of Law?

The Law Library is excited to welcome our incoming 1Ls! You will have many opportunities to get acquainted with the library, but our "First-Year of Law School Guide" is a great way to start. And don't forget about our First-Year Bingo game - there's still time to win!

Library News

Library RA Positions Available

Are you a 2L or 3L? Do you have excellent legal and scholarly research skills? If so, please consider applying for a part-time position as a Law Library Research Assistant for the fall semester.

Featured Resources

Get Trained on Westlaw, Lexis, and Bloomberg

Representatives from Westlaw, Lexis, and Bloomberg Law will be on campus to train first year students in the use of their databases. All first-year students are welcome at these training sessions.

Technology

Off Campus Access with VPN Connection – Cisco Anyconnect

In law school, off campus access to sources like HeinOnline, ProQuest and Bloomberg BNA, require use of VPN (Virtual Private Network) software. Learn how it works.

Keep Your Carrels Clean

A quick reminder on carrel policies, with a mini horror movie that features actual ants filmed in the library.

First-Year BINGO

Incoming 1Ls: Don't forget to complete your First-Year Bingo card and submit it to lawrefdesk@richmond.edu!

West Online Study Aids – Easy to Access!

Common study aids, such as the "In a Nutshell" series, are available free online through the Law Library.

Poll Everywhere!

Several faculty are using our new classroom polling software, Poll Everywhere. To demystify how it works, we've got a guide that explains how polls are created.

Silcrows and Pilcrows and Ordinals OH MY! and other mysteries of Microsoft Word

You will become quite familiar with symbols in legal writing. In addition to adding words like "silcrow" to your vocabulary, you'll learn other quirks to legal writing.

Keep Your Email Organized With Filter Rules

Yes, there is a way to manage Spiderbytes, and all of your email.

Welcome to Jason Zarin

Jason Zarin, Head of Reference, Research & Instructional Services, is a native Texan who came to Richmond this December from Georgetown Law where he was a reference librarian. Before entering librarianship, Jason practiced tax litigation at the Department of Justice and at law firms in DC & Houston. Jason enjoys cooking, soccer (come on you Spurs!), and exploring local breweries. He secretly enjoys the musicals and operas his wife Miriam drags him to. If you have any questions about tax law or research or you're interested working for the government, swing by his office.

Welcome to Stacy Price

Originally from Basking Ridge, N.J., Operations Manager Stacy Price enjoys interacting with students and “solving problems” in the Law Library. Stacy earned her B.A. at the University of Mary Washington, and previously worked at the University of Richmond in Undergraduate Admission, as well as at various non-profits and a boarding school in the Washington, D.C., area. When not in the Law Library, she enjoys time with her family and four dogs, cooking, crafts, and reading. You already know she is the keeper of the carrels, but if the library is feeding you she is very likely behind it, so be sure to give her your thanks!
